

Prayer Diary for March 2016

“He said to me 'Son of man, watch and listen. Pay close attention to everything I show you.

You have been brought here so I can show you many things.

Then you will return to the people of Israel and tell them everything you have seen”

(Ezekiel 40 v 4)

Weekend. Thank the Lord for all He has done in the school this week, particularly over the interviews. Pray that the will of God will continue leading the school through hard decisions and change. Thank God that he has entrusted us, with the power of the Spirit to bring the message of His love to this town, as the celebration of His greatest gift, draws near this Easter. May we be found worthy of the work entrusted to us.

Tuesday 8th Pray that the message of the Prodigal Son hits the hearts of the pupils from Room 6 who are presenting it in assembly this month. Ask that those in Re-integration, see the Lord's love for them through Alison. As we meet tonight for our monthly prayer meeting at Newtown Methodist church at 7-30pm pray that all who feel the Spirit's call will join in prayer for Gt Yarmouth's young people.

Wednesday 9th Pray that the Spirit will go before us in the dinner hall at lunchtime. Ask the Lord to have a hand on Youth Cafe today as they're low on leaders this week; that He will give courage for the helpers to rise up and fill the gaps. As our young adults continue their look at Revelation tonight in Stand, pray it will encourage them in their walk with Jesus towards the goal of his return.

Thursday 10th Thank God for the adults in south Yarmouth who give their time to run Ocean Waves. Terry, Cerise, Brooke, Steve and Kelly. May the love and commitment they show be amplified by coming to know the Saviour this Easter. Weekend Pray for the trustees of all those organisations providing Christian opportunities and witness for the young people of the borough, as they strive to manage the roles the Lord has for them at work, home and the churches. Where they lack may the Lord cover with His grace.

Thank God for their willingness to come each week to Room 6; pray that they will realise it is not us drawing them there but Jesus. As we think of the robber saved by Jesus on the cross, and how He meets with us, may those young people know that they are loved, not for what they have done but because of who they are.

Wednesday 23rd Pray that those at the Youth Cafe and Stand receive from the Spirit a new revelation of God's love for them. May that same love be felt in the dinner hall also.

Thursday 24th As the schools come to an end for the Easter holidays today, pray the Lord's presence will be known and recognised in every home of the young people we have connected with in some way this term; that many will look to the cross this year to find forgiveness and comfort in our Lord's saving grace. Pray for a productive and positive session in the school dinner hall and at Ocean Waves tonight.

Good Friday Pray that many in the town will see and hear the message of Easter as the churches join in the Walk of Witness in the town this morning, and as the churches hold services and events throughout the town remembering the greatest sacrifice ever given. Thank God that due to the cross we have forgiveness, and are now His children.

Easter weekend May the resurrection power bring new life to the town and the Lord's people to press on, in bringing God's kingdom about on the earth and in this borough. Pray for courage to take all the opportunities God gives to speak of the Easter story with the adults and young people.

Thursday. 31st As we pray may we all see how the Lord has been at work this month in the young people of our town, and hold to the promises of greater things to come in the months ahead. Pray for the school staff to be at peace this holiday as they are more certain of the immediate future of the school in terms of governance. Thank God that all authority comes from Him.
